$100,000 Daly City Damage Suit Impends

Local Women To Seek Damages Of SF Concern

Will Also Seek Warrant For Arrest
Process Server Who 'Crashed Home'

A $100,000 damage suit against David Artson, owner and operator of the Western Telephone Answering Exchange in San Francisco, will be filed in Superior Court in Redwood City within a week, according to plaintiffs and their attorney.

The action, stemming from the efforts of the Western Exchange to halt the operation of the Daly City Answering Service, a new concern, will charge Artson with harassment, misleading statements to the public, and abuse of employees of the Daly City firm by process servers.

Another move, supporting the damage suit, will be made shortly when the Daly City Answering Service will seek a warrant charging one process server with breaking and entering a private home in order to serve a summons on one of the employees of the Daly City concern, according to Thomas L. Bocci, attorney for the local firm.

The legal embroilment now involving Artson's Western Telephone Answering Exchange and the Daly City Answering Service, 1991 Junipero Serra Blvd., stemmed from the fact that Mrs. Inez Ingles of Westlake and Michael J. Lucey proposed to and did set up an answering telephone service in the Daly City area, according to Bocci and Mrs. Ingles.

Artson, according to San Mateo County Superior Court records, filed an action against Mrs. Ingles and several others seeking a temporary restraining order and permanent injunction to prevent them from operating the new answering service.

He charges piracy of records of his company and theft of names and addresses of customers of the Western Exchange by several former employees, whom he alleged were now connected with the new Daly City Answering Service. In his action seeking a restraining order he named not only Mrs. Ingles, but also Cleone Finch, Mildred Ford, Frances Lahty and 20 Jane Does.

City Manager Makes Statement Re 'Annexation'

In response to inquiry from this paper as to the status of the Christen Annexation, the City Manager, Edward Frank, today stated that the Christen Annexation will not in any way be hastened until adequate studies have been completed as to the ultimate needs of the area and its effect on the City explored.

The City Manager further stated that the City Council had directed him to cause studies to be made concerning a general land plan of the area proposed for annexation, both for the immediate future and for long range. Extension of water and other services consistent with the needs of the existing city will be carefully considered by the Council.

In no event, the City Manager stated, will the City Council make its decision until satisfactory answers have been given to questions presented and not until all reasonable inquiries have been answered. In all likelihood considerable study will be necessary before final decision is readied by the City Council.

4th Grade Pacifica Pupil Hit On Head By Dart, Rushed To Hospital By Ambulance

Struck on the forehead just an inch from her right eye by a steel-shafted dart, Ann Marie Freel, 9-year-old fourth-grader at West View Elementary School in Pacifica, was rushed to Kaiser Hospital in South San Francisco by ambulance shortly before noon Monday.

The dart, hurled at a fence target by Darrel Gilbert, also nine, struck Ann Marie as she walked between the boy and his target, according to Pacifica police. She apparently did not know what he was doing nor did he expect her to be in line with his target, it was reported.

The dart, which on first examination was believed to have penetrated the girl's skull to a depth of one-half to three-quarters of an inch, apparently did not enter as deeply as at first suspected.

At Kaiser Hospital in South San Francisco Ann Marie was given emergency treatment and removed to the Kaiser Hospital in Oakland for surgery. She was reported in good condition Tuesday. Hospital officials said she (Continued on Page 2)

Former Local Educator And Alpinist Dies

Long a devotee of the rigorous sport of mountain climbing and at one time one of "the finest teachers" in the Jefferson Union High School District, Miss Beatrice L. Moldrup, 67, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, Monday, from cancer.

Final rites for the well-known Daly City teacher were held at Halsted's Funeral Home, in San Francisco, at 2 p.m. Wednesday.

Miss Moldrup, a native of San Francisco, taught mathematics and economics at Jefferson High School from 1949 to 1958. During her last two years on the teaching staff she was in charge of a testing program which took in both Westmoor and Jefferson High Schools, according to John Morgan, principal at Jefferson.

Miss Moldrup's mountain climbing activities included service as chairman of various committees in support of conservation and "the free enjoyment of natural wonders of the mountains." She was a 40-year member of the California Alpine Club, twice a vice-president, and was active in the Sierra Club.

Aside from her interest in mountains and the beauties of nature, Miss Moldrup devoted her life to teaching. She graduated from the University of California in 1922, taught at Linden School in Visalia before coming to Jefferson High. She resided at 299 Citrus avenue, Daly City.

In her younger years she had hiked most of the High Sierra Mountains. After her retirement two years ago she hiked (Continued on Page 2)

Fire Chief Protests Overpass

Battles School Dist. On Merced Overpass

Fire Chief J. E. Kennedy protested strongly Monday night against Jefferson Elementary School District plans to construct a pedestrian overpass across Merced Boulevard.

The overpass is proposed to be located approximately 200 feet South of Daly City Central Fire Station and will be built by the Elementary School District to provide a passageway for school children to the Fernando Rivera School in the Westlake Park area.

Kennedy said the proposed overpass would "funnel many times the present foot traffic in front of the station and I am sure many accidents and no doubt fatalities may result."

New, Detailed City Maps Are Now Available

The new Daly City maps, which are the "best drawn and have the most detail" of any city map in San Mateo County, are now available at the office of the Daly City Department of Public Works, 144 Hillside, according to Public Works Director William Chapman.

The maps are available in 3x3 and 3x5 feet dimensions at $1 and $4 each and were produced by photographing a master model, 14x21 feet in dimension.

Chapman said the clear detail of Daly City maps was made possible by this photographic process. In this map (Continued on Page 2)

Bosun Pipes All Hands, Lady Of Mercy Cruise

"What? You haven't heard the bosun piping you aboard for the big cruise of the Festival Committee of Our Lady of Mercy of Westlake Parish," asked Mrs. Vincent Alberti this week.

"Well, you just can't afford to miss this one," she continued. "It'll be Saturday night, Sept. 23, aboard the Harbor Princess. There will be dancing to a tip-top orchestra, a mighty nice buffet, and perhaps, if the weatherman is good, a bit of moonlight on the waters of San Francisco Bay."

The bosun has piped the last call for tickets for the cruise, according to Mrs. Natalie Gill, publicity chairman. She cautioned everyone to get their tickets today because the Cruise Ship sails Saturday night.

Reservations may be made by telephoning Mrs. Philip Fraher, PL 5-4719, or Alfred Swadley, PL 5-9294.

MRS. DONALD B. SHELEY, 271 Westridge Ave; Delmar Severy, choir director at Broadmoor Presbyterian Church and last year's president of the San Francisco Choir Directors Guild; Mrs. Edward Newkirk, 301 Wellington Ave., and Mrs. Birger M. Thorness, 380 Lake

Merced Boulevard, select the musical scores for the Festival of Music to be presented at the Daly City War Memorial Community Center at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 8. The program, a part of the Golden Anniversary Celebration, will employ a 150 voice choir and in music, song and pageantry will tell the story of Daly City and the contributions the churches have made to its outstanding growth and development. The Festival of Music is under the direction of Severy.

Giant Parade To Open Daly City's Golden Anniversary Celebration

The giant parade that will kickoff the week-long activities of Daly City's Golden Anniversary Celebration on Saturday, Oct. 7, will be one of the biggest and best events of its kind ever staged in the Bay Area, according to Councilman Michael De Bernardi, who headed the committee that put it together. It will begin at 2 p. m. and will include 130 units in nine divisions.

Among the entries are some of the outstanding bands, marching units, drill teams and equestrian units in northern California.

Grand marshal for the parade and leading the line of march down Mission street past the reviewing stand in front of Jefferson High School will be Jay Alexander, master of ceremonies for the popular Marshal Jay children's program on television station KPIX.

"I don't think there is any doubt but what this will be one of the best parades ever staged anywhere in this area," De Bernardi said.

Meanwhile, John Putke and Jack Kendree, co-chairmen of the Golden Anniversary civic banquet, reported that early ticket sales indicate that more than 500 local citizens and officials and civic leaders from neighboring communities will be on hand to pay tribute to Daly City's former mayors and city councilmen.

The dinner will be served at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 30, in the War Memorial Community Center and will be preceded by a cocktail hour.

Peter J. Markovich, chairman of the Golden Anniversary Open Golf Tournament which will be played at Lake Merced Golf Club on Thursday, Oct. 12, announced that tickets now are available for that event.

Top amateurs and professionals from throughout the Bay Area will be among the players in the tournament which also will include an awards dinner that evening in the Lake Merced Clubhouse. Tickets are $15 each, including green fee and dinner.

As a special tribute to Daly City's 50th anniversary, this Saturday the athletic department and the Associated Students of San Francisco State College will turn over the half-time period at the game between San Francisco and Long Beach State for a preview of the celebration week activities.

The half-time program will be narrated by De Bernardi and will include appearances by Daly City's two queens—Mrs. Melford Batty and Lynne (Continued on Page 2)

Homage For So. City Priest At Dinner, Sept. 23

Homage due a great priest and leading citizen will be paid to Msgr. Egisto Tozzi, pastor of All Souls' Catholic Parish in South San Francisco, at a dinner in his honor at the South City's Rod and Gun Club on Saturday night.

Msgr. Tozzi, a husky and spry 79 years old, is the second oldest parish priest to hold a pastorate in the far-flung San Francisco Archdiocese. He maintains his health and vigor by churning laps in the Olympic Club swimming pool several times each week.

Just about a year ago now he was honored in Rome at the dedication of the Egisto Tozzi College auditorium named after him. The college itself, completed and dedicated to Msgr. Tozzi in 1952, was built by the monsignor's nephew, Prof. Vincent Tozzi.

In view of the honors bestowed upon Msgr. Tozzi in Italy, the civic and Catholic leaders of South San Francisco decided to honor him at this testimonial dinner.

"He's done a great deal for our city," said Adolph Sani, former mayor of South City and general chairman of the dinner celebration. "We feel we owe him something." The dinner is sponsored by the South San Francisco Young Men's Institute.

One of the monsignor's accomplishments was the face-lifting of All Souls' Church, to which he came as pastor in 1940. And All Souls' School, which is now rated as one of the three best schools in archdiocese, was opened under his direction in 1949.

Rome's modernistic Monsignor Egisto Tozzi College accommodates 1,200 students, many of them children of foreign ambassadors. A bronze bust of the monsignor, presented to him by the faculty of college at the dedication, will be mounted in All Souls' School (Continued on Page 2)

Sept. 14 the restraining order and injunction complaint was dismissed.

Artson's attorney Jack Ber- man of San Francisco then pre- pared a new injunction com- plaint and filed it. The court has now ordered three employ- ees of the Daly City Answering Service to show cause why a restraining order and/or an in- junction should not be granted. Mrs. Ingles was not served in this action.

In support of his action to file the $100,000 damage suit against Artson and his ex- change Attorney Rocci told this paper, "The Western Telephone has no case nor legitimate cause for action. They are using these methods simply as a form of harass- ment and coercion. Mrs. In- gles has never at any time violated the law and she pro- poses only to operate a busi- ness to provide good service to the public."

"We do not believe in mono- polies. (Artson operates a num- ber of answering services in the San Francisco Bay area.) We believe in free enterprise and are acting accordingly."

Mrs. Ingles is well-known in medical circles in the Daly City and Westlake areas where she has been employed by, or as- sociated with, many of the med- ical profession for a number of years. She said that it was at the request of a number of pro- fessional and businessmen that she decided to go into the an- swering service because "they wanted good, efficient service."

The bringing of darts, sharp instruments, B-B guns, knives or anything that might be con- sidered a destructive device to any of the schools in the La- guna Salada Elementary School district has long been forbidden under the Behavior Code of the district, Superintendent Fred Lucas said.

Investigation disclosed, ac- cording to Roy Carver, principal of West View school that the dart had been smuggled into school in the boy's shirt pocket. He said he knew he shouldn't have it there and that his mother had cautioned him not to take it to school.

"All parents have been pro- vided with copies of the Be- havior Code, according to school officials. They have also been requested to read them to their children and impress upon them the necessity to stay within the regulations of the code."

They did say, however, that approximately $3,000 of the checks had been passed so far, and that they were drawn on a Coer d'Alene, Idaho, bank. The investigation of the wide- spread operations of the ring is being continued.

There will be free stagecoach rides for the youngsters every afternoon at the Westlake Shopping Center, which also will be the location of daily exhibitions in gun handling by James.

A spectacular fireworks display will be put on from the Crocker Hills the opening evening and the next day will fea- ture special religious services in all of the city's churches.

There will be a Festival of Music presented by the city's various religious faiths and featuring a 150 voice choir.

A program by Romero's Mu- sic Studio, a folk dance exhibi- tion by the El Camino Reelers, a folk dance festival and fa- shion show by the Girl Scouts and a children's dancing pro- gram by the Shipley-Smith School of Dance are scheduled during the week.

There will be an old time vaudeville show, with 15 acts, many of them dating back to the era when Daly City was just beginning as a city.

Other events will include a band concert, a bowling tour- nament, a baseball game and a mobile barber shop display featuring songs by various bar- ber shop quartets.

Throughout the celebration there will be a commercial garden exhibit under a "big top" at Palmett Drive and Southgate avenue.

The exhibit will include $50,000 worth of plants, a fully- landscaped model home and a natural outdoor scene, com- plete with waterfall and a stream alive with trout.

New $550,000 Church And School Started In SSF

Ground was broken this past week and foundation con- struction started on the new Mater Dolorosa Catholic Church and School to be erected at Willow avenue and Miller Street, just off Dolores way in South San Francisco.

The new religious edifice and school when completed will cost more than $550,000, it has been estimated by contractors and members of the church building committee.

"It is hoped, based on the ex- pectations of the contractor, Peter Sartorio of Colma, that we will be in the church by Christmas," Father Norman Allen, pastor, said.

Father Allen, who is well- known in Daly City having served as pastor at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in this city for four years, 1953 to 1957, was transferred to South San Francisco last April from Guer- neville's St. Elizabeth Church.

The parish of Mater Dolorosa in South City comprises the areas known as Winston Manor 1, 2, and 3, part of the Serra Highlands and the Sunshine Gardens development.

Ground for the new church was blessed last Labor Day, the day of the Feast of St. Joseph's the working man. It will be of mission style construction, concrete block walls with red tile roof.

The church is planned to seat 1,000 persons and the school buildings will provide 16 class rooms for grades from the first through the eighth, according to Father Allen. This will provide teaching accommodations for about 800 children. There will be two classes in each of the eight grades when the school part of the structure is com- pleted.

The church portion of the building program is expected to cost about $140,000, exclusive of altars, pews and other furnish- ings, the father pointed out. The school buildings will cost an estimated $300,000.

Father Allen is presently holding five masses each Sun- day in the offices of the Holy Cemetery, which will accommo- date only 160 worshippers. The masses are held at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30, and 12 noon.

could be worked out with the fire department in relation to the location of the walkway from the overpass but that "any shift in our plans would be dam- aging to our proposals."

"My strong recommendation is that we proceed with it," he said. The plans for the overpass were made several months ago by the city and had been pub- lished in newspapers. Kennedy said that he had just recently found out about the overpass plans.

"I think we'll have accidents and many fatalities over the years if this goes through," he said.

In an other action, the board set an Oct. 16 hearing on a water line easement and fire alarm system requested by the City of Daly City for the West side of Fernando Rivera School.

Mrs. Leila Gersten was hired as kindergarten long-term sub- stitute at a salary of $5,199. She has a B. A. degree from Roosevelt University.

The board also officially ap- proved and accepted the M. Pauline Brown school after an inspection of the building. The recently completed school cost $485,500 and was opened to classes this semester.

In other actions, the board: Approved a request of the Wesley Methodist Church in Daly City to use the Thomas Edison School for religious purposes on Sunday.

Accepted the resignation of M. Pauline Brown School's first grade instructor, Mrs. Lisa Pumphrey for maternity pur- poses, effective Nov. 17.

Teen-Agers Receive Credit For Summer Volunteer Work

That the young volunteers in turn benefit by the work was stressed by Miss Vivian Christen, Administrative Secretary of the Volunteer Bureau, who pointed out that it not only teaches them the value of time well spent but helps to train them for future professions and vocations.

Jobs the youngsters filled ac- cording to reports compiled by Miss Christen and her volun- teer assistant Mrs. Norma Con- don were staff aides, Gary Ladies, Red Cross Motor Serv- ice drivers, assistants in arts and crafts, folk dancing and supervising play, telephone and clerical workers, assistant to speech and hearing therapists, staffing Fiesta booths, office receptionists, assistants with wrapping and sterilizing hos- pital equipment and supplies, recreation, camp and nursery assistants, recreation counsel- lers, "candy stripe" girls, game supervisors, and similar duties.

Heat also escapes through loose-fitting windows and doors. Weather-stripping is a home improvement which stops chilling drafts as well as heat loss.

Heating dollars can go right up the chimney! You'll buy less heat if your fireplace damper fits tightly and is kept closed when fireplace is not in use.

Remember that a yearly furnace check and filter replacement by a furnace man will help maintain furnace efficiency, and stretch your heating dollars.

Heat can slip right through your ceilings and floors. Proper insulation can save you money by cutting your winter heating costs as much as 30%.

BUREAUCRATIC BLIGHT

The proposed bill to provide medical benefits to everyone drawing Social Security checks would lead to Federal control of medicine "since it would be imprudent and impossible for the Government to pay for medical care without developing controls on hospitals, nursing homes, and ultimately the practice of medicine."

That statement was recently made by Dr. Edward E. Rosenbaum, chairman of the Oregon State Medical Society, to the House Ways and Means Committee. Then, during the course of his testimony, he strongly refuted the more or less commonly held notion that many people, and most particularly elderly people, must go without adequate medical care because of lack of funds.

In his words, "To the best of our knowledge there is no case in Oregon where an individual has been denied medical service because of inability to pay."

"At the moment it is brought to our attention that such cases exist within the state, the Oregon State Medical Society is equipped and ready to provide such individuals with immediate medical care of the highest quality."

There's nothing unique about the Oregon situation — what is true there is true throughout the country. Existing mechanisms for providing care can be and will be improved. And that can best be done by keeping medicine free of bureaucratic blight.

TAXES ALWAYS INCREASE

You can say one thing with virtual certainty about taxes — they always increase.

Take the Social Security tax as an example. The combined employer-employee rate, with each paying half, was 2 per cent on a maximum of $3,000 a year in earnings when the plan went into effect in 1937. Now the rate is 6 per cent on $4,800.

This isn't all. The tax is scheduled to reach 9.25 per cent in 1969 — without increased benefits. If benefits are increased, the tax will have to be boosted still farther, and applied to higher income levels.

Long Time Friend of Girl Scouts At Camp Butano Has Passed Away

Chateau Thierry to Americans means the place where the United States Marines broke the back of the last German offensive during World War I. Among those who lay wounded when the smoke cleared was John Russell. Last week death caught up with the brave leatherneck.

For the past six years, he and his faithful dog, Shep, have been a familiar and favorite pair to hundreds of Girl Scouts who have camped at Butano Creek near Pescadero. In 1953, when Central County Girl Scout Council, now merged with North County Girl Scouts to make it the Girl Scout Council of San Mateo County, purchased Butano Creek Camp, old John and old Shep went with the deal as caretakers.

After Chateau Thierry, Russell spent several years in hospitals before receiving a total disability discharge. For some time he worked with a nursery in Aberdeen, Wis., but the skilled woodsman, hunter and fisherman eventually worked his way back to the Santa Cruz mountains he loved.

It is an established fact that he was born in Felton, Calif., but the date is nebulous. The midwife failed to record it. However, since he could recall having felled trees in the Santa Cruz mountains as early as 1903, it can be assumed that he was about 80 when he died, leaving a devoted niece, Mrs. Eva Chavis, of 66 Beverly drive, Salinas.

It was 1949 when Francis Winner, owner of the Camp Butano site, asked Russell to care for it. From then until his death, he made his home in the ivy covered cottage known as Honey House. Built in approximately 1881 by Miles McDonauld and his sons, Jake and John, owners of the site at the time, the log cabin was where John separated the honey from the honeycombs he brought in from his many beehives.

On July 31, John Russell, because of pains in his chest, left Honey House to enter a hospital in San Francisco for a checkup. Last week he was

White Cane Sales To Begin Oct. 20

White Cane Days, sponsored annually by the Lions Club International, will be held in California and Nevada this year on Oct. 20 and 21.

This year marks the 11th observation of the event, which has raised millions of dollars for sight conservation, providing aid to sightless and near sightless children and adults.

The Los Angeles Foundation for Junior Blind is a major recipient in the Greater Los Angeles area and the Lions Hospital for Blind Youth in San Francisco is supported by Lions Clubs in the Northern California region.

"We are working towards development of a similar hospital for Southern California," chairman Karl L. Barnum of Monterey Park reported.

He said 70,000 Lions and members of their families would volunteer their services during the two days of collection in California and Nevada.

White Cane Days as a means of raising money was started by the Monterey Park Lions Club in 1951. It has since been adopted in most states and in some other countries.

Members of the Monterey Park Lions Club, through volunteer services, manufacture the miniature white canes to be worn on lapels and distribute them at cost to other Lions Clubs in America and abroad.

Named as one of the district's White Cane chairmen was Gilbert Larish of Burlingame, appointed by district governor Rev. Elmer Anderson of San Mateo for San Francisco and the Peninsula to Santa Cruz.

The View From ...Behind The Badge

Contrary to some schools of thought, the Police are "of" the People, and not "versus" the People. Being "of" the people, we of the Daly City Police Department are taking this means to share our views and thoughts with the reading public.

Most streets being of the two way variety, we hope that the reading public will share their views with us. Any citizen with questions or observations concerning law enforcement or Departmental policy, is invited to communicate these thoughts to this space.

We hope that through this exchange of thoughts in this column, that the Department will be made better aware of the thoughts, suggestions, and complaints of the citizenry, and that the citizens will become better acquainted with the Department, the personnel, and the work that is being accomplished.

HISTORICAL NOTE* The prototype of the modern American municipal police force was the London Metropolitan Police, established in 1829. This organization was the brain child of Sir Robert Peel, and to this day the London Police are sometimes referred to as "Bobbies" or "Peelers," after Sir Robert.

We mentioned above that the Police are "of" the people, not "versus" the people. When Sir Robert implemented the establishment of the London Metropolitan Police, thought was given as to whether this body would be "of" the law or "above" the law. It was emphatically decided that the Police were to be "of" the law.

To this end, Police personnel were ruthlessly weeded out; the point was eventually made, and the reputation of the London Police was made, and has endured to the present day.

In this country, the Police are descendants of this original department, at least in theory. It has been more difficult for our Police to aspire to the reputation of those in London, but it is generally agreed, we feel, that progress is being made to this end.

PERSONNEL GLIMPSE* Officer James Sunderland has celebrated his ninth anniversary with the Daly City Police. This 41 year old Patrolman is a former San Francisco Policeman, and a Marine Corps veteran of World War II and the Korean Conflict. Jim has performed various assignments in the Traffic Division and Patrol Division. For a number of years he operated a solo motorcycle. Officer Sunderland is a Gunner Sergeant in the Marine Corps Reserve. He is currently assigned to beat patrol as a radio car operator on the Second Platoon (4 p.m. to 12 a.m.).

Twenty-three year-old Officer Dennis Sheehy has just completed his first year on the Department. Bachelor Dennis has worked on all three watches in the radio cars. Officer Sheehy is originally a San Franciscan, is a member of the Naval Reserve, and is a graduate of the San Mateo County Law Enforcement Association Recruit School at College of San Mateo. He is presently assigned to work a vacation relief watch in the radio cars.

WHAT'S DOING

T. P. Coyne, your Telephone Manager in Daly City

Someday you may phone by satellite. And, according to Bell telephone engineers, satellites could also be used to relay live TV from all over the world to TV Stations here in California.

Bell System people have already moved a long way toward making this a reality. They've bounced coast-to-coast phone calls off the Echo satellite and are now building a communications satellite of a new, more advanced type. They hope to see the new one launched sometime early next year.

This is just one of the ways telephone people are working to provide better communication links between the U.S. and countries overseas.

A new kind of phone system is now getting its first field test by the Bell System. It's an experimental Electronic Central Office designed to give you even faster, more versatile telephone service.

For example, if you were going out for the evening, you could have calls to your home transferred to wherever you're going.

Phone numbers you call frequently could be given abbreviated code numbers so you could reach them by dialing just two numerals.

This experimental Electronic Central Office is another example of the continuing search to make your telephone service still better in the years to come.

For many years now, we've been making teaching aids available to schools—such things as films, lecture materials, science demonstration kits.

Two of the newest kits developed by the Bell System are for high school physics classes.

With one kit, a student can build a solar-powered device similar to those used by some satellites to send back information from outer space. The second kit helps explain visually the action of electrical waves. It contains a film, lecture material, booklets and a demonstration "machine".

In this way, telephone people, working with educators, help develop scientific abilities of our youth.

Peony Shows Great Popularity With Gardeners

It would be hard to find a plant with more perennial appeal than the Peony. Generations of gardeners have grown it, and not once in all the years has it lost its amazing popularity.

For all this, however, Peonies are relatively little grown in California. They have the reputation of not enjoying our equable climate, and only the daring gardener has bucked tradition to find out just how adaptable the Peony can be. There are beautiful plantings to be found in almost every part of Northern California.

The factors which govern Peony success are warmth and water in summer plus as much cold as your garden can muster in winter. These factors are most readily found inland, but you see thriving Peonies around San Francisco Bay, especially north, east and south of San Francisco itself.

If you would pick gorgeous bouquets of Peonies yourself each spring, start shopping for the root divisions this month and plant them right away. Choose a spot in your garden that catches a minimum of winter sun and will still have its share of warmth in summer. Dig the soil at least a foot and a half deep—preferably two feet deep—and enrich it with steer manure. Bone meal worked in at planting time is also a desirable additive.

When you get the dormant root divisions from a California Association of Nurserymen member you will have no difficulty identifying the "eyes" from which growth will come. Plant these barely below the surface—two inches at most—and that's all there is to it. Bloom is highly unlikely the first spring since plants are establishing themselves, but in the second year, you'll have lush blooms—the size of large, full roses—to admire and pick. Each year thereafter, the bushes will increase in size and productivity until over-crowding reduces the bloom. This occurs only after several years, however, and when it does you merely lift and divide the roots, getting more Peonies in the bargain. By then, we'll guarantee you won't be able to get enough of these wonderful plants.

Rehearsals Start For Festival Of Music on Oct. 8

Rehearsals got under way last week for the Festival of Music scheduled for Sunday evening, Oct. 8, in Daly City's War Memorial Auditorium. Weekly sessions are being held at the Broadmoor Presbyterian, Latter Day Saints, and Westlake Community Baptist churches. Final combined rehearsals will be at the War Memorial Auditorium on Thursday, Oct. 3, and Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8.

Giving strong assistance to local choral groups will be the 40 voice Renanah Choir from Simpson Bible College located on Silver Avenue in San Francisco. This accomplished group has been exceptionally well received both in the Bay Area and on tour throughout the western part of the United States.

Altogether, 16 musical numbers will be used along with tableau scenes and narration. The program will trace the religious history of Daly City from the founding of the first Jewish synagogue to the most recent church organized in the community.

The Daly City Ministerial Association is sponsoring the evening with the belief that it will help the citizens of the community to become better acquainted with and more appreciative of their religious heritage and opportunities.

The public is invited to attend this Festival of Music as part of the Golden Jubilee Celebration. Sunday evening, Oct. 8, has been completely cleared of all other anniversary activities so this program may be attended by as large a crowd as possible.

MEANING OF SUCCOS

Succos (Feast of Thanksgiving) is the Jewish Festival of Thanksgiving on the occasion of the final ingathering of the harvest. It resembles the Thanksgiving American Festival and both holidays have their roots in the Bible. The Sukkah, which is the small impermanent structure that is built for this Festival and is covered with various greenery, symbolizes the wanderings of the Hebrews in the wilderness of Sinai. Thus, the Jewish people of today are reminded through this Festival of their good fortune in the stability of a democratic community and thus give thanks, as of old, for God's blessings.

City Progress To Highlight Library Talk

A historical talk on Daly City's "Century of Progress in Half the Time," by Henry Sundermann, Sr., tying in with the Daly City Golden anniversary celebration, will highlight the Thursday, Sept. 21 general meeting of the Executive Board of Friends of the Library at the Westlake Library on Southgate ave.

Sundermann served on the Daly City Council for 25 years and is a past president of the Library Commission. Also a program of Spanish music of early California will be presented by Don Grimes, talented young music student at San Francisco State College.

The program will be followed by a social hour. The time is 8 p.m. in The Coral Room of the library building.

In the recent Daly City Garden-Club show the Friends of the Library were presented with an Award of Appreciation for their attractive display, featuring a flower-and-figure arrangement modeled after a picture shown in a book on arrangements.

The display pointed up books on gardening, floral arrangements and related material, a large selection of which is on the shelves of the Daly City Library.

Mrs. H. S. Garrison and Mrs. Howard Doerr were responsible for the display, and were assisted in manning the booth by members of the Friends group.

The Board also heard reports from the committee working on participation in the Anniversary celebration parade.

At City Library Circulation Rises

Sam Chandler, Daly City librarian, reported Sept. 13 on circulation figures which show that more than 20,000 books, periodicals, pictures and records were taken out by library users during the month of August.

Watchtower Society To Stage 3-Day Bible Study Meet

San Mateo County Fairgrounds is again the site chosen by the Watchtower Society for the semi-annual circuit assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses, it was announced this week. The three day program is scheduled for October 13-15.

Harold E. Casperson, 452 Lakeshire Dr., presiding minister of the Daly City congregation, stated that an attendance of about 2,000 is expected. Casperson explained that the delegates will represent twenty congregations from San Francisco and the Peninsula whereas the Witnesses that attended the huge Candlestick Park convention earlier this month came from over 500 congregations in the Southwestern United States.

Much of the instruction given the Witnesses on their ministry at the Candlestick Park gathering will be discussed and applied on a local level. "These assemblies not only give us opportunity for Christian fellowship," Casperson explained, "but we receive good spiritual counsel on our ministerial activities and practical admonition on applying Bible principles in our daily life."

Featured daily on the program will be Lester M. Dugan, district supervisor for Northern California, and Lawrence Kraushaar, circuit minister in the Bay Area. Both appeared on the program at the Candlestick Park convention and are traveling representatives of the Watchtower Society which sponsors the 3-day Bible seminar.

Assembly high points will include baptism of new ministers Saturday afternoon, Oct. 14. Dugan will conclude the convention with the public Bible talk, "Uniting Men In A Split-up World" on Sunday, Oct. 15, at 3 p.m. All sessions are open to the public, but a special invitation is extended to hear this important Bible topic on the final day, according to Casperson.

uing growth of the city and the demand for library facilities, Chandler said.

Unemployment Insurance Changes To Become Law

More than 30 changes in California's Unemployment Insurance Code by the 1961 Legislature have been signed by Governor Edmund G. Brown and will become effective between September 15, 1961, and January 1, 1962.

These amendments to the law make numerous changes with respect to unemployment insurance and disability insurance benefits, and the code's taxing provisions.

TAXING PROVISIONS

Taxing provisions of the code were revised, effective January 1, 1962, to permit continuance of the employer tax experience rating principle under which employers are able to earn reduced tax rates. Had the revenue raising provisions of the code not been amended, experience ratings, which have been an important part of California's unemployment insurance system since its inception, would have been abolished.

Employers who have entered business within the most-recent three years will not have their unemployment insurance taxes raised, but will pay taxes at a rate of 2.7 per cent plus a special tax of 0.5 (one-half of 1 per cent). Their gross tax will remain at 3.2 per cent of taxable payrolls.

The maximum tax rate for all rated employers (those with 12 or more calendar quarters of chargeability) will increase from a gross of 3.2 per cent to a gross of 3.5 per cent of taxable payrolls. (The present gross tax includes the extended benefit duration tax of 0.2 per cent (two-tenths of 1 per cent), which was repealed. The new gross will include the aforementioned special tax of 0.5 per cent.)

The new 0.5 per cent tax was levied on all employers—rated and unrated—for the purpose of helping to assure solvency of the Unemployment Fund and to preserve the principle of experience rating for employers. As a further step to assure continuance of experience ratings, the sliding scale of tax rates for rated employers was revised from a range of 0.3 per cent (three-tenths of 1 per cent) to a maximum of 3.0 (3 per cent) to a new range of from 1.7 per cent to the maximum of 3.5 per cent.

The taxable wage base for employer taxes is increased from $3,600 to $3,800 for a calendar year.

The amended taxing provisions of the code mean that the principle of merit ratings which enables employers to have reduced tax rates depending upon stability of employment within their businesses will continue. Had not taxing provisions been revised, all merit ratings would have been abolished because the fund this year would have fallen below the point necessary to enable the Director of Employment to continue the merit rating principle.

Amended legislation requires that the interest rate to be paid by employers granted an extension of time to pay delinquent unemployment insurance taxes is increased from 3 per cent to 6 per cent per year.

Employers who quit business must now self-assess their tax liability and pay the tax within 10 days. Extension for payment of tax on showing good cause may be granted for a period not to exceed 30 days.

It now becomes unlawful for an employer to engage in specified discriminatory employment practices against any individual between the ages of 40 and 64 solely on the grounds of age. Policy directives protect and safeguard the right and opportunity of such workers to seek, obtain and hold jobs without discrimination because of age.

Every employer is required to immediately notify an employee of any change in his relationship with the employer, failure to do so constituting a misdemeanor.

Any employer of one or more agricultural workers, who pays wages in total amount in excess of $100 in any calendar quarter in 1960 or 1961, must register with the Department of Employment as an employer, and begin deducting 1 per cent from the wages of his agricultural labor employees for disability insurance purposes, effective October 1, 1961.

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

Unemployed workers will be able to receive unemployment insurance payments while being retrained to fit themselves for new jobs, effective September 15. Beginning that date, a claimant is relieved of the obligation to be available for work and seek work if he is undergoing a course of approved retraining to fit himself for new work. Purpose of this measure is to attack hard-core unemployment caused by mechanization and automation, by assisting individuals in job classifications where work opportunities no longer exist to fit themselves for new jobs.

About two-thirds of all persons who file new unemployment insurance claims on and after September 15 will receive increased weekly benefit amounts of from $1 to $3. There is no change in the maximum weekly benefit amount of $55, however.

New provisions involving coordination of the Federal extended benefit program with California's extended duration benefits trigger the extended duration benefit program on a monthly rather than a quarterly basis, and provide that the claimant shall be paid State extended benefits if by reason of Federal law he is denied Federal benefits.

New legislation provides that the seek work requirements of claimants as a condition of eligibility for receiving benefits are to be based upon compliance with specific and reasonable instructions of the Department of Employment.

DISABILITY BENEFITS

Disability insurance coverage is extended to agricultural labor for the first time, effective October 1, 1961, when a deduction of 1 per cent will be made from the wages of farm workers for disability purposes, to be held in trust by employers and sent to the Department of Employment. Disability and hospital benefits based on agricultural wages will be paid to eligible farm workers starting in May, 1962.

The taxable wage base for all worker contributions for disability insurance will go up on January 1 from $3,600 to 1 per cent of $4,100 for the year 1962, and will become 1 per cent of $4,600 in 1963, 1 per cent of $5,100 in 1964, and 1 per cent of $5,600 in 1965.

Maximum weekly benefit amounts for disability insurance will be raised from $65 to $70 for periods of disability beginning after January 1, 1962. This will be accomplished by increasing the highest quarter wage bracket of $1,500 for the $65 weekly benefit amount to $1,625 and over for the $70 weekly benefit amount, and by providing an escalator formula beginning in 1963 under which the $70 maximum weekly benefit amount may go up or be reduced to not less than the $70 top, based upon the increase or decrease in average weekly wages.

Another amendment makes it a misdemeanor for employers to fail willfully to withhold in trust the deductions required by law for disability insurance purposes from wages paid to their employees.

GARDEN VILLAGE PTA MEMBERS IN BIG RESPONSE

"What will bring you to a PTA meeting?" was the question asked of Garden Village PTA members this week.

The response indicated that parents in this area are interested primarily in panel discussions of children's problems and in lectures by doctors and psychologists concerning children's difficulties. At least one such program is promised within the next few months.

The survey also indicated that children's performance (skits and glee club presentations) would draw a good attendance at meetings, as would "just plain interesting speakers." A few parents indicated a desire to hear educators from other schools and universities, some evidenced a liking for Scout performances, and a very few displayed interest in discussions of adult problems. If any of the parents of the unit have further program ideas, they are invited to call Mrs. Jack Bertken, unit president, PL 6-3353.

At the present time, Mrs. Bertken and members of the executive board are actively formulating plans for autumn, with emphasis on the October membership drive and membership participation in the unit's projects. Since it was voted last year to discontinue September meetings, the first gathering of the new term will not be held until October. At this time parents will have an opportunity to meet the new principal of Garden Village School, C. S. Martindale, and become acquainted with their children's teachers.

Crocker-Anglo Bank's New Office Opened In Daly City, September 18

California's oldest national bank established itself in Daly City this week when Crocker-Anglo National Bank opened for business on Monday, Sept. 18, its new office in the Skyline Plaza Shopping Center. The Skyline Plaza office became Crocker-Anglo's 112th office and Daly City is now the 70th community to be served by the bank.

The Crocker-Anglo history has its origin in several private banking houses that flourished during the exciting days of the Gold Rush and that brought California its first banking functions, but officially the Crocker-Anglo story begins on Nov. 30, 1870, with the chartering of The First National Gold Bank of San Francisco. That institution came into existence only four months after The National Bank Act was amended corporation of "National Gold Banks" authorized to issue notes, redeemable only in gold coin by the issuing bank upon demand. The First National Gold Bank of San Francisco was the first financial institution in California to be chartered under Federal law and, because it was the start of the Crocker First National Bank, one of Crocker-Anglo's two basic predecessors, it is the bank's earliest direct ancestor. In 1925, the First National, which had dropped the "Gold" from its name 41 years earlier, joined with the Crocker National Bank, founded as Crocker-Woolworth & Co. in 1883, to become Crocker First National Bank. Crocker-Woolworth was founded by Charles Crocker, one of the "Big Four" who figured prominently in the building of the Nation's first transcontinental railway, and who was the grandfather of W. W. Crocker, chairman of the board of today's Crocker-Anglo National Bank.

Early in 1873, another institution, The Anglo-Californian Bank, Ltd., an outgrowth of a mercantile business established in San Francisco in 1850, opened in San Francisco as the first step in the development of the Anglo-California National Bank. Thirty-six years later, The Anglo-California Bank joined with The London Paris National to form The Anglo & London Paris National Bank, which in turn was consolidated with the Anglo-California Trust Company in 1932 to become The Anglo California National Bank.

During the next several decades, the Crocker Bank developed into a leading influence in Bay Area banking with outstanding commercial and trust facilities and close relationships with leading industries. Meanwhile, the Anglo Bank served many of the nation's largest corporations as well as hundreds of thousands of individuals in every walk of life through a widely distributed and rapidly growing branch system and became noted also for its well-developed international banking department and its special experience in the financing of consumer goods.

Thus was the stage set for consolidation of the Crocker and Anglo banks in February, 1956, as the culmination of more than 80 years of banking for each of these pioneer institutions. This financial union created the fifth largest bank west of the Mississippi and, what is now, the 17th largest in point of deposits among the Nation's more than 14,000 banks.

In addition to its distinction as California's oldest national bank, Crocker-Anglo's history is sprinkled with other important "firsts." Among these are the establishment of the Nation's first bank automotive finance department in 1917; the opening of what is believed to be the first branch banking office in California in 1907 (the Mission office in San Francisco); and the initiation of property improvement loans long before the advent of the FHA.

Today Crocker-Anglo's assets aggregate over $1,950,000,000, its capital funds total more than $140,000,000 and its deposits exceed $1,800,000,000.

More than 4,800 Crocker-Anglo men and women serve some 660,000 depositors from offices in California communities extending from Yreka, near the Saunders, chief of the Division of Industrial Safety, told a near capacity audience of the problems faced by California in keeping its educational system among the best in the nation. He cited the tripling of the college enrollment in the next ten years as an example of the necessity for precise planning.

Recognized as an authority in the field of legislation affecting California's schools, Senator Fisher was the author of the bill which successfully reduced the number of teaching credentials from 61 to the basic five.

Daly City Football Day Is Sept. 23

September 23 has been planned as Football Day for the youngsters of Daly City. The day will start off with a Football Clinic at Westlake Park. Coach Vic Rowen of San Francisco State College and several of his assistant coaches will show football enthusiasts the finer points of the game.

Among the coaches will be Dick Logan, former star center of San Francisco State. Logan will cover skills and duties of the pivot man. Jim Sochor, who many local fans will remember as a great "Gator" quarterback, will teach the youngsters some of the secrets of the successful quarterback. Bob Rodrigo, all time San Francisco State great, will cover offensive and defensive patterns. Assisting the coaches in demonstrations will be the Westmoor High School football team.

The clinic will start at 9 a.m. Saturday, September 23, and continue until 11 a.m. Following will be a rules clinic for the Daly City Touch Football League coaches and game scrimmage between local teams.

At 1 p.m., tickets for the San Francisco State College versus Long Beach State College game will be given to all children interested in attending. This game will be held at Cox Stadium on the San Francisco State College campus. The stadium is within walking distance of Westlake Park. Game time is 2 p.m.

WESTMOOR FACES PA FRIDAY

Westmoor High School grid-ders, with 14 returning letter-men and two outstanding backs, should give Ravenswood High School, Palo Alto, a rough time of it Friday at 3 p.m. in a practice match on the home field.

The regular season opens Sept. 29 against Jefferson High School. The game will be televised on KGO-TV on Sept. 30.

Ober, Furnai and Barich are last year starters who coach Pete Matisi says are outstanding. Rich Ullo at right guard is also a hard player, Matisi noted.

The four returning starters are Furnai, Barich, Ober, and fullback Harry Brown. Matisi said he is pleased with the appearance of the team. The squad will have to work on its running game. If that improves, he said, it may then stiffen up on defense.

Coach Matisi picks Capuchino and Hillsdale High Schools as the toughest teams in the league.

Jeff Grid Squad To Face Menlo

Jefferson Union High School hopes to better its 1-8 record this year when its football squad locks horns Friday against Menlo Avenue High School on the home field.

With nine returning letter-men, coach Joe McGrath said his outlook for the season is hard to predict. "I have 10 or 11 kids who would be able to go up against most of these clubs."

His left halfback, Bob Kasper, has a sore shin, and left half Duane Baswell has a sore ankle. Twenty players of a squad have dropped out from an original group of 49, leaving 29 men.

Also expected to see action are Baswell at left halfback and Rich Reetz at end.

Terra Nova To Practice At White Field

On the condition that the school district reseed or re-turf any of the field damaged by football cleats, the Pacifica Park, Beach and Planning Commission has agreed to lease White Field to Terra Nova High School for use of the Terra Nova football squad for a short period.

The agreement to lease the field, usually used for Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball and other recreation activities, was made contingent on the approval of the Jefferson Union High School District Board of Trustees.

Superintendent Ed Morgan said he felt sure the board would approve, particularly in view of the fact that by using the field in Pacifica, the Terra Nova grid team would be able to cut down on transportation costs to practice at Westmoor, as was at first contemplated.

Baroni's Grab Daly City Softball Crown

The Daly City softball championship crown was taken by Baroni's softball team Sunday, Sept. 17, at Westlake Park. The game was a replay of an earlier game that was called by darkness.

In the replay, Foster of Baroni's held the powerful Drugs team to a 2 hit shut-out. Patron, Drugs catcher, collected both of these. J. Kennedy, catcher for Baroni's, matched his 2 for 3.

Shortstop Fontana hit the single that iced the game with two RBIs. Final score Barone's 4, Daly City Drugs 0.

It's SPARE TIME

at Westlake Bowl

by Jim Grealish

St. Monica's and Corpus Christi Mothers' Club are the latest Parent Teacher groups to add bowling to their social program. The following groups now bowl each week at Westlake, some in organized leagues, some just for fun: St. Emydius, Holy Angels, St. Thomas More, Holy Name, Star of the Sea, St. Thomas the Apostle, Notre Dame des Victoires, St. Stephen and St. Gabriel Schools.

The Westlake Masters started off with a bang last Wednesday as Rich Knorr rolled 236 while Al Ratto and Nick Kerekuk both registered 235 games. Many bowlers from the Daly City area were on hand at the Sheraton-Palace last Saturday night for the Shadow Ball marking the end of Bowlers Week.

As the Daly City Employees League started last week, it looked as though Howie Ferrel would be far ahead of the other 452 members of the league with a 452 total for the first two games. Something happened in the third game and he almost hit 600 for the evening.

With over one thousand bowlers enrolled in mixed leagues this season, the leagues have taken on a variety of names: Ball and Chains Mixed Fives, Happy Mixed Fives, Twilight Mixed Fives, 99's Mixed Fives, Westlake Wedlocks Sunday Stars, High Rollers, and Northgate Mixed Fives.

Fred Von Hussen led the way for the men last Thursday with 225 while Erma Lundquist's 214 was high for the fairer sex. The Juniors were very busy last Saturday morning with the starting of the new leagues. American Junior Bowling Congress membership cards, averages, pairings, etc., had the league officers hopping. After the smoke had settled, over 200 boys and girls were off to another season of bowling.

Now that the new Brunswick "Learn to Bowl" film has arrived, it will be shown every afternoon at 2 p.m. on the lanes.
